Jardin Tan

WELCOME

In 1859, France conquered Ho Chi Minh, the largest city of Vietnam. Saigon would reign as the French capital of Cochinchina, and yet amid the upheaval of colonisation, there would emerge the first true, vibrant and delicious form of fusion cuisine.

Jardin Tan explores the dynamic flavours of French Indochina in a warm, welcoming space. Perfect for a bite with friends, a formal event, or a lingering lunch well-earned after a botanical ramble, the many spaces that Jardin Tan offers will delight.
